We are a university research laboratory specialised in polluted atmospheres monitoring from the University of Liege, located on the Arlon campus.

Within the framework of our activities development, we engage for early October

an engineer or a master (m/f)
with a scientific background with particular skills in analytical chemistry (VOC) and statistics

Profile
Master’s degree or equivalent

Required qualifications:

- chemistry (GC-MS expertise is an advantage)
- statistics and multivariate data analysis
- ability for technical work and for laboratory
- good skills in English and French

Expertise in the domain of odor and gaseous compound measurement sensors as well as programming is an advantage.

The candidate will also be interested in scientific research.

Proposed employment
contract: 12 months, full time possibility to start the 1st October

Please send your application (CV and letter of motivation) by e-mail to acromain@uliege.be

Arlon Campus Environnement
Université de Liège
SAM (Sensing of Atmospheres and Monitoring)
Prof. Dr Anne-Claude Romain

Avenue de Longwy 185
6700 Arlon
Belgium