Full-time academic vacancy in the field of International Finance

Start date: 1 September 2021

Description of the course load:
A full-time, indivisible position in the field of International Finance within the HEC Liège - Ecole de Gestion. This post includes teaching, research and services to the Community.

Teaching activities:
The successful candidate will be responsible for a course load (in English and French) in both Bachelor’s and Master’s programmes. They will also teach specialised courses according to their profile and experience, such as:

- International Finance
- Market Finance in EU
- Monetary and Financial Economics
- Banking

Research Activities:
As a researcher in international finance, the successful candidate will contribute to research activities in the strategic research area of “Financial Management for the Future” (focus on “Asset and Risk Management”) (http://www.hec.ulg.ac.be/index.php/fr/faculty-recherche/domaines-strategiques-recherche/asset-risk-management).

They will represent HEC Liège - Ecole de Gestion to the national and international scientific community, notably by organising events, especially with secondary education stakeholders, scientific workshops.

Services to the Community:
The successful applicant will also be expected to supervise placements and dissertations in their field.

The position involves participation in the academic life of the Finance and Law UER and HEC Liège - Ecole de Gestion.

Qualifications required / profile:
- Hold a doctorate in economics, finance or a related discipline (at the latest at the time of appointment);
- Have a solid background and a strong scientific interest in basic and applied research issues related to international finance and related to “Financial Management for the Future” (with a focus on “Asset and Risk Management”) and have a structured research agenda in these areas;
- Make sure that “sustainability” is integrated into the development of their research;
- Be able to organise and lead a research team in these fields and to integrate into international research networks;
- Good teaching skills;
- Be available for teaching and research assignments abroad;
- Be able to give lessons in French and English.

The successful applicant will have the possibility of tenure, and will start with limited teaching activities, enabling them to devote 40% of their working time to research activities. A positive evaluation at the end of the 4-year trial period is conditional on the candidate’s proven competence in the fields of teaching and research.

In particular, with regard to research, the candidate is expected to:
- publish scientific articles in relevant and top-level economic and management journals, as well as books and book chapters (see HEC Liège Academic Journal Guide & Academic Book Publishers);
- develop new research projects and write grant applications to attract internal and external research funding;
- supervise doctoral research;
- participate in international research networks;
- Actively participate in the organisation of research activities in the strategic area corresponding to HEC Liège - Ecole de Gestion, such as research seminars, workshops and scientific conferences;
- take part in research projects and missions on behalf of private organisations and/or public authorities and develop partnerships with them.

In addition, the candidate is expected to:
- provide high quality education;
- develop new and active teaching methods;
- supervise dissertations;
- contribute to the continuous evolution of the School’s teaching programmes.

Applications:
Applicants are requested to submit their applications electronically, to the following address: Postesacademiques@uliege.be with a copy to the Dean of HEC Liège - School of Management (dean.hecliege@uliege.be) by 8 February at the latest.

Required documents:
- A cover letter with a complete curriculum vitae demonstrating relevant expertise in research and teaching;
- A list of publications and international and national projects/collaborations;
- A letter describing the candidate's interest in research (maximum five pages);
- Two letters of recommendation.

Conditions of recruitment:
The position shall be assigned for a fixed term of four years which may lead to the permanent appointment of the person concerned. Exceptionally, the post may be awarded from the outset on a permanent basis.

In the case of a four-year appointment, an evaluation of the person concerned will be carried out at the end of the third year.
- If the evaluation is negative, the post-holder will complete the four-year term but will not be able to extend it.
- If the assessment is positive, the person concerned shall be appointed on a permanent basis.

Our institutional policy is based on diversity and equal opportunities. We select candidates according to their qualities whatever their age, sexual orientation, origin, beliefs, disability or nationality.

Information:
Any further information can be obtained from Mrs Anne Chanteux, President of the EBU Finance and Law of HEC Liège - School of Management - anne.chanteux@uliege.be

Salary:
Salary scales and how they are applied are available from the human resources department of the University: Ms Ludivine Depas – tel.: +32 4 366 52 04 – Ludivine.Depas@uliege.be