Full-time academic vacancy in the field of Psychology and Cognitive Neurosciences

Start date: 1 September 2021

Description of the course load:

A full-time, indivisible position in the field of Cognitive Psychology and Neurosciences within the Department of Psychology. This post includes teaching, research and services to the Community.

Teaching activities:

The applicant must be able to deliver the teaching assignments of the post:

- by including information from the most up-to-date scientific research in the field;
- in collaboration with the other teachers of the Department of Psychology and the FPLSE, professionals in the field and colleagues from other Belgian or foreign universities.

They must also be able to maintain a continuous dynamic of improvement in the quality of their teaching.

The post is composed of the following five courses:

- Psychology of cognition and language - Part 1
- Psychology of cognition and language - Part 2
- Cognitive neuroscience (Part 1 - Foundations)
- Applied Cognitive Psychology
- Tutorials in psychology and cognitive neurosciences

In addition to courses, the workload involves the organisation and supervision of practical work and/or placements, as well as the supervision of theses.

Research Activities:

The successful applicant will have to develop a research programme in line with the teaching load. This includes obtaining research grants, supervising doctoral theses, national and international collaborations, etc.

Services to the Community:

The candidate will be expected to make a significant contribution to the smooth running of the university by taking on their share of the responsibilities and administrative tasks that surround teaching and are an integral part of the life of the Faculties and the University. They will have to:

1. conscientiously ensure their participation in committees and contribute to them in accordance with their mandate;
2. rigorously assume the administrative responsibilities entrusted to them by the department, faculty or other university bodies;
3. foster inter-faculty and inter-university collaboration.

Qualifications required:
• Must be a psychologist with a doctorate in psychology;
• Demonstrate the qualifications needed to carry out high-level scientific activity through o international publications (applicants must have been first author of at least three articles in international peer-reviewed journals);
  o obtaining research funding or managing projects and teams.

Selection procedure:

The evaluation of the applicant will take into account teaching experience in a university setting, but such experience is not essential. Nevertheless, as part of the selection process, the applicant will have to prepare a public lecture (1/2 hour), open to academic and scientific members of the Faculty, in order to evaluate their teaching qualities.

Applications:

Applicants are requested to submit their applications electronically, to the following address:
Postesacademiques@uliege.be with a copy to Ms. Cindy Minconetti C.Minconetti@uliege.be no later than 28 February 2021.

Required documents:

✓ An application with a curriculum vitae;
✓ A complete list of publications;
✓ A cover letter;
✓ The candidate will be required to demonstrate that they have sufficient practical experience to take on the teaching load in this area (maximum one page);
✓ A description of the teaching plan (one page maximum) demonstrating the capacity to link teaching and conduct research;
✓ A description of the research objectives (one page maximum) demonstrating the ability to develop a research programme related to the teaching workload;
✓ A copy and a summary of the five most significant publications.

Conditions of recruitment:

The position shall be assigned either from the outset on a permanent basis or for a fixed term of four years, which may lead to the permanent appointment of the person concerned.

In the case of a four-year appointment, an evaluation of the person concerned will be carried out at the end of the third year.
  - If the evaluation is negative, the person concerned will complete the four-year term but will not be able to extend it.
  - If the assessment is positive, the person concerned shall be appointed on a permanent basis.

Our institutional policy is based on diversity and equal opportunities. We select candidates according to their qualities whatever their age, sexual orientation, origin, beliefs, disability or nationality.
