Part-time academic vacancy in the field of patent law

Start date: 1 September 2021

Description of the course load:

A part-time (10%), indivisible, position in the field of Patent Law, within the Department of Law. This post includes teaching, research and services to the Community.

Teaching activities:
The following teaching unit:
DROI0224-2 Patent Law, 30h Th. 15hrs Pr, Q1, 4 credits, advanced Master’s in European law, competition and intellectual property law, compulsory course

Research Activities:
While respecting the freedom of the successful candidate to build their own research agenda, the Faculty hopes that the post-holder will be able to develop high-level scientific research activities in the field of intellectual property.
This research should be reflected in publications (both in journals and in the form of monographs or contributions to collective publications) and active participation in conferences and seminars.
The successful candidate will be expected to develop partnerships with researchers from other institutions and to participate in national and international research networks.
The successful candidate must integrate the collective research dynamic, in particular through active participation in the activities of the chosen research unit.

Services to the Community:
The post-holder will join the Department of Law in the Faculty of Law, Political Science and Criminology. They will contribute to the life of the Faculty and participate in the various activities and missions linked to their membership of the academic body of the department, the Faculty and the University of Liège.
Services to the community includes contributing to the supervision of dissertations in the advanced Master’s in European Law.

Qualifications required / profile:

• Hold a doctorate in legal sciences;
• Demonstrate expertise in the fields of teaching and research through high-quality scientific publications;
• Demonstrate strong teaching skills;
• Demonstrate the ability to carry out, supervise and direct, in an autonomous manner, fundamental and applied research in intellectual property law;
• Preferably have relevant practical experience in relation to patent law;
• Possess an excellent command of French and English (written and spoken).
Applications:

Applicants are requested to submit their applications electronically, to the following address: Postesacademiques@uliege.be with a copy to the Dean of the Faculty: doyen.droit@uliege.be no later than 9 March 2021.

Required documents:

✓ A request accompanied by a complete curriculum vitae with a list of publications;
✓ A report on past and current research activities and a research plan, including the envisaged integration within the University of Liège;
✓ A teaching file including a report on any prior teaching activities and a teaching plan.

Conditions of recruitment:

The position shall be assigned either from the outset on a permanent basis or for a fixed term of four years, which may lead to the permanent appointment of the person concerned.

In the case of a four-year appointment, an evaluation of the person concerned will be carried out at the end of the third year.

- If the evaluation is negative, the person concerned will complete the four-year term but will not be able to extend it.
- If the assessment is positive, the person concerned shall be appointed on a permanent basis.

Our institutional policy is based on diversity and equal opportunities. We select candidates according to their qualities whatever their age, sexual orientation, origin, beliefs, disability or nationality.

Information:

Any further information can be obtained from the administrative department of the Faculty: Ms Antoinette Gosselin - tel : +32 4 366 93 00 – A.Gosselin@uliege.be

Salary:

Salary scales and how they are applied are available from the human resources department of the University: Ms Ludivine Depas – tel.: +32 4 366 52 04 – Ludivine.Depas@uliege.be