Part-time academic vacancy in the field of “Environmental and Regional Policy”

Start date: 01/09/2022

Vacancy reference: FDSPC-220126-01

Description of the course load

A part-time (10%), indivisible, position in the field of the Environmental and Regional Policy, within the Department of Political Science. This post includes teaching, research and services to the community.

Teaching activities

Courses concerned

SPOL2209-3 Environmental and Regional Policy (30h th., 5 cr.), Master: Civil Engineer Architect; Master in Geographical Sciences, general orientation; Master in Geographical Sciences, geomatics orientation; Master in Organismal Biology and Ecology; Master of Specialisation in Urban and Regional Planning; Master in Political Sciences, general orientation; Master in Political Sciences, general orientation (M60), approximately 60–85 students.

The post holder may also contribute to the supervision of final year projects, internships and applied research projects related to their speciality.

Research Activities

The successful candidate will undertake research in the field of environmental and regional policy. The position calls for participation in expert research, in collaboration with the Faculties of Science and Applied Sciences.

Services to the Community

The post-holder will join the Department of Political Science within the Faculty of Law, Political Science and Criminology. They will contribute to the life of the Faculty and participate in the various activities and missions linked to their membership of the academic body of the department, the Faculty and the University of Liège.

Qualifications required / profile

- Have the necessary qualifications in the analysis of the environmental and regional planning policy and its developments;
- Have significant professional experience in the field of policies developed at European or regional level and their translation into planning tools and corresponding legislation, in order to transmit this practical expertise to students and to illustrate teaching with concrete cases;
- Demonstrate teaching expertise and strong teaching skills.
Selection procedure
The selected candidates will be interviewed and will present a public lecture under the conditions set by the Selection Committee.

Our institutional policy is based on diversity and equal opportunities. We select candidates on the basis of their qualities regardless of age, sexual orientation, origin, beliefs, disability or nationality.

Applications
Applicants are requested to submit their applications electronically, to the following address: Postesacademiques@uliege.be with a copy to the Dean of the Faculty - (doyen.droit@uliege.be) no later than 21 March 2022.

Documents required:
- An application (with a cover letter) accompanied by a complete curriculum vitae;
- A report on past and current research activities and a research plan, including the envisaged integration within the University of Liège over the next three years;
- A teaching file including a report on any prior teaching activities and a teaching plan with teaching methods for the next three years;
- A comprehensive list of publications and a copy of the five most representative publications of their career, in digital format, with a justification of this choice.

Recruitment conditions
The appointment is for a fixed term of three years, renewable subject to a two-fold assessment of the relevance of continuing the course and of the candidate.

Information
Any further information can be obtained from the administrative department: Ms Marie de Kemmeter - tel: +32 4 366 27 30 – Marie.deKemmeter@uliege.be

Remuneration:
Salary scales and how they are applied are available from the human resources department of the University: Ms Łudivine Depas – tel.: +32 4 366 52 04 – Łudivine.Depas@uliege.be